

Rejoicing in the Incarnation (Hebrews 10:1-10)

Hebrews 10:1-10

Rejoice in the One born to die by seeing Him willingly accomplish salvation for sinners.

Rejoicing in the Incarnation

Hebrews 10:1-10

Three reasons we rejoice in the incarnation:

1. Jesus Ended What Could Never Save (vv. 1-4)
2. Jesus Became What Would Only Satisfy (vv. 5-7)
3. Jesus Secures What Cannot Be Lost (vv. 8-10)

Rejoicing in the Incarnation

Hebrews 10:1-10

Three reasons we rejoice in the incarnation:

1. Jesus Ended What Could Never Save (vv. 1-4)
2. Jesus Became What Would Only Satisfy (vv. 5-7)

“But had we the tongue of men and angels, we were not able in any just measure to express the glory of this condescension; for it is the most ineffable (i.e. indescribable) effect of the divine wisdom of the Father and the love of the Son, the highest evidence of the care of God toward mankind. What can be equal to it?...

“It did not befall him by lot or chance; it was not imposed on him against his will; it belonged not to him by any necessity of nature or condition, he stood not in need of it; it was no addition to him; but of his own mind and accord he graciously condescended.” - John Owen

Hebrews 7:26 (ESV)

“For it was indeed fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, innocent, unstained, separated from sinners, and exalted above the Heavens.”

Rejoicing in the Incarnation

Hebrews 10:1-10

Three reasons we rejoice in the incarnation:

1. Jesus Ended What Could Never Save (vv. 1-4)
2. Jesus Became What Would Only Satisfy (vv. 5-7)

“Poor Creature! How woeful is your condition! How deformed is your appearance! What is become of the beauty, of the glory of that image of God in which you were created? How have you taken on yourself the monstrous shape and image of Satan? And yet your present misery, your entrance into dust and darkness, is no way to be compared with that is to ensue. Eternal distress lies at the door...

...But yet look up once more, and behold me, that you may have some glimpse of what is in the designs of infinite wisdom, love, and grace. Come forth from your vain shelter, your hiding-place. I will put myself into your condition. I will undergo and bear that burden of guilt and punishment which would sink you eternally into the bottom of Hell. I will pay that which I never took; and be made temporally a curse for you, that you may attain to eternal blessedness.” - John Owen
